We fill the majority of our searches internally and through the efforts of contingent search firms, but on occasion will work with retained firms on difficult searches. I have worked with Medicus Partners on several searches and found their approach to be both unique and successful. They provide us with valuable market information on the searches prior to getting started, they provide excellent data on the candidates that they are presenting to us and they work on searches, even the difficult ones, long after others have “thrown in the towel.”

In an industry filled with questionable characters, my Medicus Partners recruiter has always done the right thing when dealing with us and we are appreciative of their efforts on our behalf. I recommend them without hesitation. If you have further questions, please feel free to contact me.
